

IRSA COMMUNICATIONS STANDARD

Version 1.0 Effective 2026-03-22

Standard for official channel usage, publication language discipline, and correction workflows.

OVERVIEW

The IRSA Communications Standard defines how official messages are drafted, reviewed, approved, and corrected across the organization's public channels.

- Channel discipline for public announcements and secure workflows.
- Approval expectations for sensitive or high-impact communications.
- Correction practice with version tracking and explicit updates.
- Tone and clarity standards that preserve institutional credibility.
